

The
SKILLS

2012

The Skills Factor is a national competition where business skills count. It's not just about the business idea.

The exciting national skills contest for young people

It takes a combination of initiative, discipline and creativity to bring a good business idea to completion.

Now's your chance to show us what you can do.

Bring together a team of people, develop a great idea and show us what you've learned.
